Dedication

To all those boys from our class who are helping to rid the world of oppression and tyranny, we, the Seniors, dedicate this book. Lt. Robert E. Boyles stands as the symbol of all the Wash-High boys now struggling to make this world a place where we can live according to peaceful standards. We present to our principal and his fellow servicemen this annual as an expression of our sincere gratitude for the fine work they are doing.

DR. MEYERS B. HORNER

Maybe Nero fiddled while Rome burned. but one thing is certain:—Dr. Horner is not "jitter bugging" while there is a war to be won. In addition to his duties as Superintendent of Schools in Washington, Dr. Horner has accepted a position on our local Draft Board. Those of us who do not know Dr. Horner by his educational and patriotic deeds, will always remember him as the "man with the flashy tie."

DR. ROBERT M. WAYMAN

From eight until four our assistant principal has his attention focused only on the various happenings at Wash-High. After school the real Dr. Wayman shows himself. Dr. Wayman, who incidentally, approves of the hats women wear nowadays, is in his glory gardening and playing with his daughter, Sandy.

Board of Directors

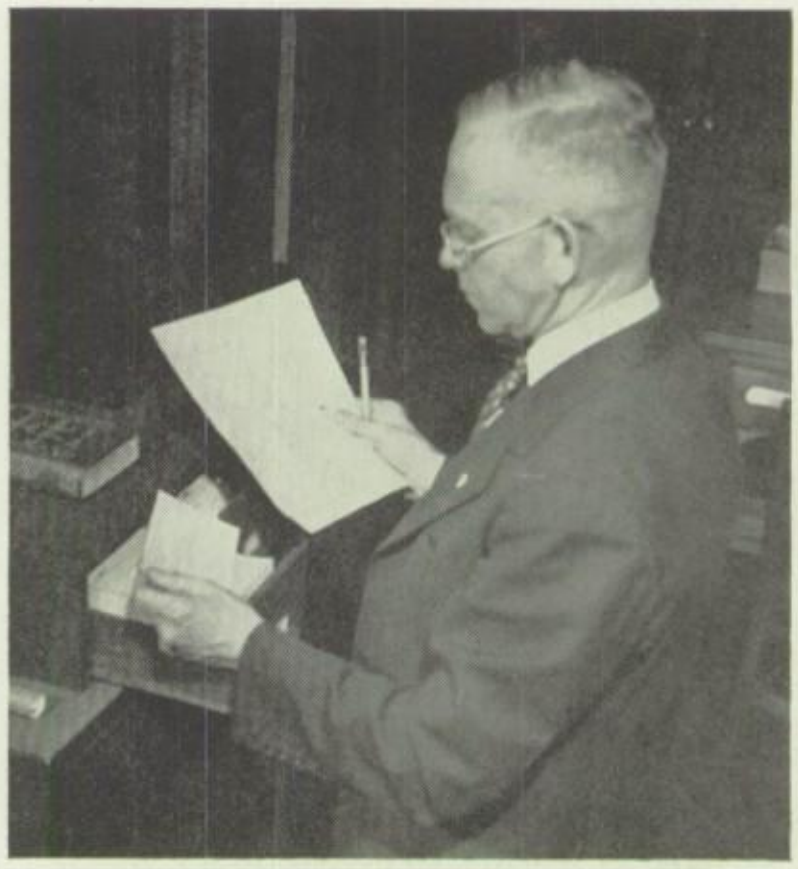
Always working with the good of the Washington school students in mind, The Washington Board of Education has accomplished much. As part of its last year's work the School Board added baseball and wrestling to our calendar of sports. At present serving the community as members of the Board of Education are: J. Arch Bromley, Ray Knestrick, A. W. T. Strott, William Richardson, Heston Hill, John McClusky, and James M. Lydic.

OUR SHOW

Administration

CENTRAL OFFICE STAFF

Working for the good of the Washington School District in general are Miss Hazel Moore and Miss Pauline Ford, who serve as secretaries in the Central Office. These two ladies call Dr. Horner boss.



MR. HOMER LOWRY

It was a great mystery where Mr. Lowry was the day Johnny Long was in town. Quite a few students missed a matinee rather than go, fearing to be tapped on the shoulder by our Home and School Visitor at an unexpected moment. Really, though, Mr. Lowry was miles from the State, as that was the day he sold his cows. Oh, the worries you cause us, Homer!

MEDICAL STAFF

Miss Ocie Ffye and Dr. Guy F. Patterson help us through any sickness we may develop while at school. In his "off" hours our doctor likes to fish, while our nurse prefers to do charity work.

OFFICE

MISS RELLA RIGGLE

Now who could that be calling from Philadelphia? With Miss Riggle on the receiving end, it is not probable that it is a business call, especially when her one and only attends school in the City of Brotherly LOVE.

MRS. LENORE BRIGHTWELL

At last she has relented! Mrs. Brightwell, a member of the main office staff, is now the bosom friend of every Wash-High student. It took us a long time, but at last we persuaded her to ring the dismissal bell just a "trifle early."

MISS DORIS BEHRINGER and MISS LEAH MILLER

Not all of us can wear a gold football and attend football games in Carmichaels like our Miss Behringer. We do not know his name yet; nevertheless, we think we are pretty good sleuths. Don't worry, Doris; if he leaves you, you can always get one of the ex-W & J men to whom Miss Miller writes. Last year one of the boys to whom Miss Miller writes sent her an orchid for Easter.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

After the organization of the Junior Class last fall, the officers and advisers "pitched" in to earn money to sponser that big event of the Junior Year, the Junior Prom Already they have made a name for themselves, having arranged three dances and the largest skating party Wash-High has yet held. Being the first class to "skip" mid-year graduation many other "firsts" may be expected of them. This should become a reality under the capable leadership and guidance of William McGraw, Frank Carroll, June Pettit, Jeanne Kolosky, Miss Lena Lively, and Miss Mary Jean Nelan.

SENIOR A OFFICERS AND ADVISERS

After three successful senior high school years, the 12A's are now ready to start their journey through life. Under the leadership of Reed Carter, James Curran, Marjorie Palmer, and Eloise Hixon, much was accomplished to make their school days live forever. Highlights were the Junior Prom and Christmas Formal, both of which were sponsored not alone by the Sr. A's but also by the Sr. B's. A magazine sale and hot-dog stand were also managed profitably by the class members. Thanks goes out from every 12A to Miss Virginia Moore and Miss Jane Sproat, without whom their high school days would not have been complete.

SENIOR B OFFICERS AND ADVISERS

The 12B's, the last mid-year graduating class, are working on to a glorious finish. George Hill moved to the 12A class leaving the vice-presidency vacant. This was filled by Russell Gee who with the other officers and advisers, Harry Murray, Helen Dubelle, Leatha Watka, Mrs. Joseph Lane and Mr. Paul Kratt, is leading the class to a successful graduation. As co-sponsors of the Jr. Prom and Christmas Formal, the class showed its ability to work untiringly and successfully. Just as they accomplished much while in school, much is expected of them as they go out into the world.

"ABOUT THE KIDS"

SHIRLEY ALBAN: She is just one of the gang; She likes music, dancing, and modern slang. . . . . CHARLES "Chuck" ANDERSON: A very good salesman Chuck will make; If only his customers give him a break . . . . . ROBERT "Joe" BAILEY: It must be the sights he wants to see; Because the Navy is where he wants to be . . . . . MARY BETH BARR: Mary will always pass; As her clothes are really class . . . . . WILLIAM "Blue" BARRON: From grid to gym he'll coach them through; Because this is what he wants to do . . . . . RHODA "Dada" BASHUR: This is a gal that we heard pine; Just to be in the musical line . . . . . JOSEPH "Joe" BENDOT: Joe is a person we all know; Will be admired where ever he may go . . . . . PEGGY "Shorty" BENDOT: A pleasing nurse she is sure to be; Because of her grand personality . . . . . PEGGY "Peg" BLACK: "Judas Priest", she is sure to say; Whenever you pass ice cream her way . . . . . ROBERT "Blackie" BLACKHURST: Bob likes to eat, sleep, and see Janet; Who is the only star on his home planet . . . . . MARGUERITE BONUS: Reporting what she hears and sees; Busy as the proverbial bees . . . . . BETTY BORKOWSKI: A good housewife is what she wants to be; Wait ten years, then we shall see . . . . . ROBERT "Hymie" BOSWELL: Hymie does not claim to be clever; So he can't do any thing about rainy weather . . . . . ROBERT "Blue" BROWN: Here is the class's pretty boy; To all the girls he is a joy . . . . . EDWARD "Brownie" BROWNLEE: Brownie so likes to look at the girls; That you'd think they were a string of pearls . . . . . MURIEL BURRELL: To make the lives of all men fine; She wants to work in the social line . . . . . ANNA MARIE "Pinky" CAIN: Typing is one thing that Pinky loves to do; Dancing appeals to her, too . . . . . BETTY LOU "Lulu" CALL: She wants to travel and see the sights; And thus really exercise her woman's rights . . . . . HALDEN "CHARLIE" CARTER: The joys of physics class would have been marred; If Charlie Carter had ever been barred . . . . . REED "Skip" CARTER: From house to house he'll foot it each day; And drop a letter on his way . . . . . MARIE "Dimples" CHAMBERS: To be a housewife she wants to apply; And boy, how pumpkin pie catches her eye! . . . . . ROBERT "Wink" CHARLTON: Here is a sharp old charmer; Whose greatest yearn is to be a farmer . . . . . Alberta "Al" Colbert: She'll face all problems with a smile; And work hard to the very last mile . . . . . JACK "Red" CURRAN: Just to sleep till ten each day; Is one good way to decrease your pay . . . . . JAMES "Bo" CURRAN: Bo and Eddie make a super pair; Without them Wash High would be bare . . . . . FINETTA "Blondie" DAKE: House all clean, the food cooked fine; To welcome her husband home on time . . . . . JANE "Janie" DALTON: Food and sailors go hand in hand; For both of these she will take her stand . . . . . LOIS "Davy" DAVIS: She'll be a secretary to some fine boss; Who won't ever be very cross . . . . . STUART "Brownie" DECKER: If you'd eat what this guy does; The rest of your life would be a WAS! . . . . . BERNARD "Lover" DiVINCENZO: Here's a great eater, as we all see; a spaghetti fan he seems to be . . . . . ANN "Nan" DOBBIE: You'll get your call with the greatest of ease; When you hear Ann say, "Number, Please?" . . . . . JACK "Dutch" EAGON: Math is what he most likes to do; And he wants to be a pilot, too . . . . . JOHN "Easty" EASTERBROOK: This guy will go a long way in life, too; As there is nothing that he dislikes to do . . . . . EDNA "Eddy" ELLIS: Homework is something most of us hate; According to Edna it is just our fate . . . . . MARY "Myrt" LOU EVANS: Whether false or whether true; Without the boys she surely is blue . . . . . WANDA "Boots" FARLEY: Be sure to get your vitamins each day; Says Wanda in her own quiet way . . . . . EVELYN "Penny" FREEMAN: Sitting down writing; then typing; Holds first place in Penny's liking . . . . . CAROLYN GAMBLE: Here at last is a budding physician; We certainly hope she'll complete her mission . . . . . MARGARET "Blondie" GARBER: To make good in life is her main ambition; Could anyone ask a better petition . . . . . EVELYN "Shorty" GOEBEL: "Murder",—just a pet saying, you see; For Evelyn would not hurt a flea . . . . . GERALDINE "Gerry" GORDON: When she is in China seeing the sights; Let's hope she can avoid all the plights . . . . . MARGARET "Peggy" GRAY: Some like beans, some like tomatoes; But you can give her scalloped potatoes . . . . . DONALD "Shorty" GRICE: Shorty is a funny lad; He dislikes teachers; they make him mad . . . . . ADDIEVA "Sunny" GRIFFIN: Sweets are what she likes to eat; And hearing good music gives her a treat . . . . . MARY LOU "Lou Lou" GUINN: Lou Lou wants to be a nurse; We are sure her patients won't get worse . . . . . DOROTHY "Dolly" GVOZDEN: A chicken dinner is her weakness; But cracking gum makes her eat less . . . . . JAMES HARR: Here's a guy who at the least beck; Is always ready to start to neck . . . . . GLORIA "Glory" HAYES: Here's a gal who dotes on blue; She keeps a superfine scrapbook too . . . . . LITTLE PREXIE EDITORIAL STAFF

"ABOUT THE KIDS"

Starting in the spring of 1944, the Little Prexie Editorial Staff began plans and conferences concerning "The Little Prexie Circus." They arranged, composed, and edited this book working faithfully to the end. The Staff was formed by these students: Sara Rutherford, editor; Bernard Bunner, assistant editor; Holland Cokeley, Charles Brown, Norma Tharp, Edward Holmes, Shirley Wharton, Lois Peacock, and Dorothy Morrison. The book owes much of its success to its advisers Miss Virginia Moore and Miss Anne Rutherford. Bernard Bunner, Holland Cokeley, and Charles Brown deserve special recognition for their art work.

LITTLE PREXIE BUSINESS STAFF

This staff conducted the sale of this volume, and the sale of ads. Until Bob Blackhurst was called into the Army, he was business manager with Joy Smith acting as his assistant. In January Joy moved into the manager's position. The Staff, composed of Adeline Marino, Patsy Cimino, Joy Smith, William Ross, and Caryl Lou Reynolds, and their adviser, Dr. Robert M. Wayman, worked diligently to make this book a success.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OF STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of Joseph Bendot, president of Washington High School, the executive council met regularly. Upon call to the Navy, Joe resigned his position. James Curran moved into the presidency and Reed Carter was elected vice president. Committee chairmen of the Student Council compose this group along with the school officers. The present members are James Curran, Joseph Castriota, Joan Snyder, James Cavalcante, Arlene Henry, Iona Runion, Donald Reddick, Thomas Joswick, and Reed Carter.

LITTLE PRESIDENT STAFF

Each month the task falls upon this Staff to publish our school newspaper. The members of the Staff have been chosen from Miss Conley's various journalism classes. Under the leadership of the editor, Morthea Mousetis, the Staff, consisting of Irving Saul, Mary Barr, Marguerite Bonus, Edna Lee Ellis, Helen Stahlberg, Norma Tharp, Caryl Lou Reynolds, Richard Jones, Jack Eagon, James Rocco, Dorothy Morrison and Thomas Joswick, has produced many interesting issues of the LITTLE PRESIDENT.

All the World is a Stage

"LET ME GROW UP"

"Let Me Grow Up," Senior Play of the January '45 class, added another star to Mr. Gaylord Hartman's crown. It was the story of a sixteen-year-old girl, Lexie who was all set to meet the soldier of her dreams, when her movie star mother breezed in from Hollywood and insisted that she dress like a nine-year-old. After all, it was only for one day, but the most important day of Lexie's life. The play was a huge success because of the excellence of the cast and their superb direction.

CAST

Grace Hartman, Nancy Rowland, Patricia Nystrom, Sara Fisher, Esther Haught, Edythe Stuart, Louise Rohrkaste, John McCullough, Paul Headley

CAST

Marjorie Palmer, Dorothy Gvozden, Gloria Thomas, Jack Eagon, Jean McAlpine, Dorothy McDonough, Betty Verno, Ruth York, Don Reddick, Carolyn Gamble

"HE COULDN'T MARRY FIVE"

The May Senior Play was a rare comedy. It pictured a "topsy-turvy" household when the five daughters of the house tried to marry the son of their father's boss. Each person followed his own occupation which may have varied from being a nurse to a toe-dancer. The parts were excellently portrayed revealing once again the careful training given the cast by Mr. Hartman.

"ALL ABOARD"

Each year the financial returns from the Spring Play prove its ever-increasing popularity, and this year is no exception. In "All Aboard" the 27th annual Spring Play, we found Ray King, Lucinda McGlumpy, George Hill, Clarlew Snyder, Lois Peacock, and Reed Carter taking the leads. Joy Smith, Bill McGraw, Stuart Decker, and Don Gardner handled the supporting roles very well.

SENIOR TRIO

Clara Mae Posa, Edythe Stuart, and Loi Peacock

Accompanist—Norma Jean Wright

These three little misses never get hisses.

"YES, HERE THEY ARE"

MARTHA ABBAS: Martha is a pleasant lass; She boosts the morale of every class . . . . . MARTHA "Mart" ASBURY: A filing clerk is Martha's ambition; She will keep the files in good condition . . . . . FOOTBALL SUMMARY

The 1944 football season at Wash-High was highly colorful and hard fought. The boys on the squad gave their all to uphold the fame of Wash-High's fighting spirit. Although the season ended with four victories and five defeats, we are proud of our boys who did their best.

The season opened with Wash-High playing their city rival, Trinity. Trinity came out on top with a 2 to 0 score as the result of a safety in the last few seconds of the game. The team was hard hit when Russell Gee suffered a broken leg in the early part of the game. Dick Syrek, Gil Dentel, Pete Wilson, and Knute Murray stood out in the opening game, and indicated that they would be hard to stop.

Wash-High was handed another setback at Beaver Falls by a score of 27 to 6. Dick Syrek raced 79 yards for a touchdown with perfect interference by Piggy Rockwell, which proved to be the outstanding play of the game.

The Little Prexies enjoyed their first victory when they defeated Charleroi 18-7. Gil Dentel was responsible for two touchdowns, and Syrek scored the other. Holley, Rockwell, and Cavalcante all played outstanding football. The team had a foothold by this time, and we were sure they would go on to more victories.

Canonsburg was the next victim; this time the Prexies came out on top to the tune of 26 to 0. The entire team played the brand of ball that makes "All-American" material.

"Old Man Weather" was responsible for the defeat of Wash-High by McKeesport. On a very muddy field McKeesport won 14 to 0, after being held to no score for three periods. Bill Barron and Piggy Rockwell were very outstanding in this game.

A seven-touchdown parade led the 45 to 0 victory over Morganza. The touchdowns were made by Dentel, Killen, Syrek, and Harr. Nearly all of the team saw action in this game and made a very good showing.

The seventh game of the season was another defeat, though the boys put up a good fight. The score was Mt. Lebanon 21—Wash-High 0. Mt. Lebanon got the breaks when three kicks were blocked, resulting in their victory, but our team must be given a hand because they played outstanding ball all during the game.

The boys were out to settle the score with Trinity in honor of Russell Gee, who suffered a broken leg in the first game with Trinity. Wash-High was on the big end with a 18-7 score. Syrek was responsible for the touchdowns and Holley, left end, was on the receiving end of a pass for the other. Brownlee and Curran stopped many plays of Trinity.

In the last game of the season, Donora defeated the Little Prexies by a score of 34 to 6. The game which was played on Armistice Day was one of the most colorful games of the season. Donora will not soon forget this game.

The team will lose several players via graduation this year, those being Barron, Curran, Holley, Brownlee, Tustin, Resciniti, Easterbrook.

The members of the team that are now in the service of their country are Rockwell, Easterbrook, Bryner, Dentel, McManus, Killen.

CHEERLEADERS

Jean Rungo, Dorothy Keeney, Betty Verno, James Rocco, Ruth Marsh, Lois Shunk, Frances Rosello are Varsity Cheerleaders.

Absent from Varsity Cheerleader picture—James Bromley

Here are the students who put spirit into Old Wash-High by leading our cheers. Much of the credit for the success of cheerleading at Wash High goes to Miss Jeanne Warrick, the cheerleaders' adviser. Although Miss Warrick stays far in the background, her presence is always felt when a cheer is conducted exceptionally well.

BASKETBALL

SEASON SUMMARY

Once again Wash-High completed its basketball season with a Section 2 championship. A play-off game with Burgettstown had to be won to reach this top place. In the elimination contest, Washington was defeated by Beaver Falls.

WRESTLING

First Row—Left to Right—Tony Gizoni, Jack Lemon, Jack Sullivan, Richard McCue

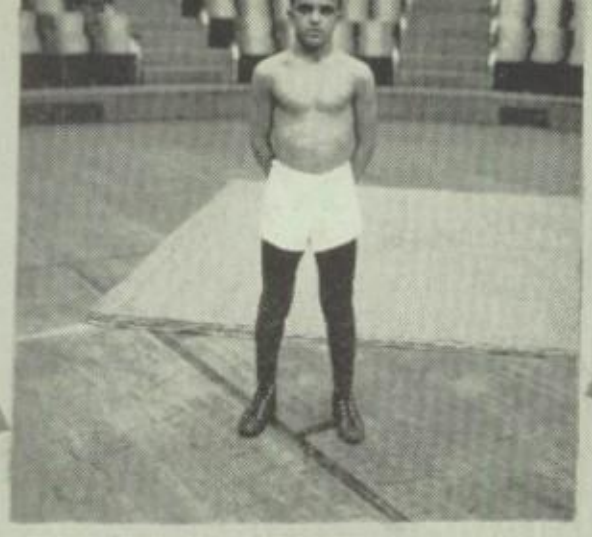
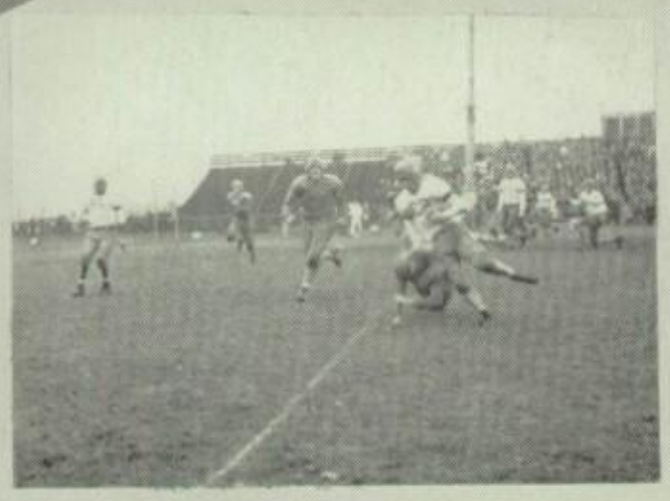
Wrestling was again introduced into Wash-High this year. This was the first year for this sport since 1941 and 1942 when Mr. McGlumphy had a team. This year our team was coached by Dr. William Harris. Although our grapplers lost eight while winning only four and tying one, the spirit of the team and school worked up to a high pitch during the season.

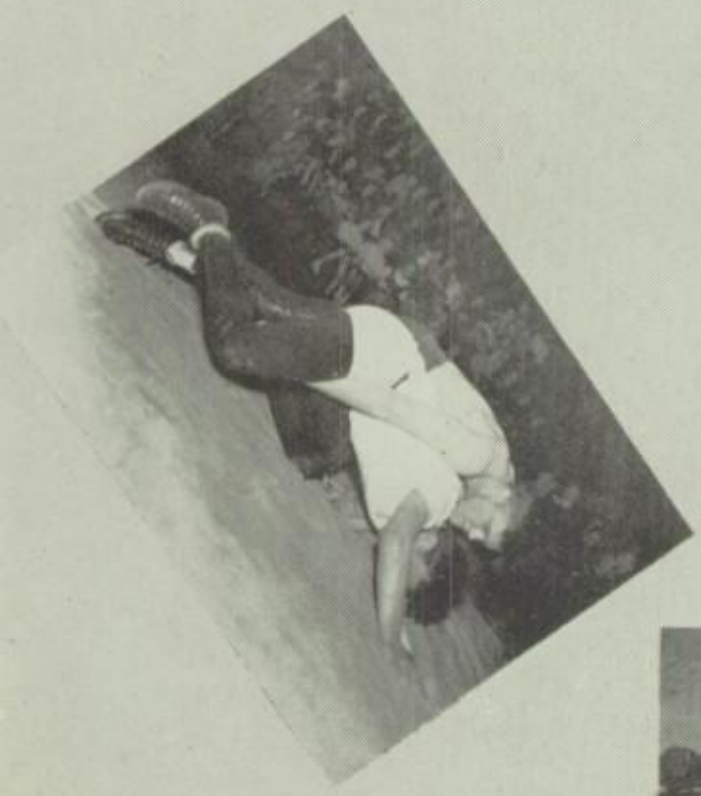
Boys who were the highest scorers for the team were Tony Gizoni, Richard McCue, James Harr, Bernard Bunner, Jack Eagon, and Carl Tustin. In the W. P. I. A. L. Tournament at Waynesburg, Gizoni, McCue, Harr, Bunner, and Eagon were entered. Gizoni and McCue came out on top and were runners-up in the 88 and 95-lb. classes.

Schedule was as follows:

Chartiers	January 12
Carnegie	January 19
Jefferson	January 26
Waynesburg	January 30
Jefferson	February 6
Canonsburg	February 9
Waynesburg	February 13
Carnegie	February 16
Chartiers	February 20
Greensburg	February 23
Dormont	March 2







GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Betty Tucker, Margaret M. Jackson, Ruth Marsh, Dorothy Morrison

The (S.B.T.'s) Senior Basketball team and champs of the '45 season played their final game against the Sophomore team, winning also the basketball plaque. This same team, except for a few new members added in the 10th grade, have been playing together for five years. One of the many things these girls will miss will be their seasons of basketball. Following in their footsteps are the up and coming Sophomores who hope to step in their shoes by winning the championship and plaque next year.

A few of the S. B. T. members graduated with the January class of 1945. The members of the team are as follows: Dorothy Morrison, Betty Tucker, Ruth Marsh, Helen Wade, Alice Johnson, Margaret M. Jackson, Georgia Brown, Esther Leiner, Ella Brown, Nora Jane King. Margaret M. Jackson was the captain of the Senior A team.
